Section C (Marks = 30)

Question No. 3 (CLO2-A1)

(Marks = 10+10)

Pakistan and Israel do not share formal diplomatic relations, as Pakistan has not recognized Israel as a sovereign state since its creation in 1948. This stance is rooted in Pakistan's ideological commitment to support the Muslim Ummah and its strong solidarity with the people of Palestine. Pakistan views the Palestinian issue as one of illegal occupation and denial of the right to self-determination, which directly aligns with its foreign policy principles. The protection of Islamic values and support for oppressed Muslim nations are central to Pakistan's diplomatic priorities.

Despite the absence of official relations, there have been limited and informal contacts between the two countries over the years, primarily for intelligence sharing or under U.S. mediation. Pakistan's refusal to establish ties with Israel also reflects its concern for national unity and public opinion, where any recognition is widely opposed. Furthermore, Pakistan maintains that any change in its stance depends on a just resolution of the Palestinian conflict. Although some Muslim countries have normalized relations with Israel, Pakistan continues to uphold its traditional position. The foreign policy remains guided by ideology, national security, and a commitment to peace and justice for Palestine.

Read the scenario given above and answer the following questions

- a. In light of Pakistan's guiding principles of foreign policy—particularly the promotion of world peace, support for Muslim countries, and the right of self-determination—explain Pakistan's position on Israel. How do these principles influence Pakistan's refusal to recognize Israel as a state, and how has Pakistan supported the Palestinian cause on the international stage?
- b. Analyze Pakistan's foreign policy towards Israel in the context of its core objectives—national security, economic development, and ideological commitment. How have these objectives shaped Pakistan's refusal to recognize Israel, and to what extent do regional and global dynamics influence the possibility of any future change in this policy?

Question No. 4 (CLO1-A1)

Discuss in detail the salient features, implementation, working, and eventual abrogation of the 1962 Constitution of Pakistan. In your answer, explain the reasons behind the shift from a parliamentary to a presidential system, the role of President Ayub Khan in shaping the constitution, the political and administrative structure introduced by the constitution, and the key factors that led to its failure and cancellation in 1969.

Bhutto and Ayub
